

QUALIFICATIONS AND JOB DESCRIPTION

Longevita, UK's #1 choice for medical travel to Turkey, is looking for new graduates or candidates with up to two years of work experience to join its "Rotational Program" offering unmatched training and development in the medical tourism sector.

WHO YOU ARE

- You are a motivated individual with good communication skills and have a genuine interest to start a career within the medical tourism industry
- You have an eagerness to learn and develop yourself as well as grow your career
- You are a people person who is driven and ambitious within a sales/customer service environment

WHAT WE EXPECT

- Degree from tourism administration, English translation and interpretation, English or American language and literature, School of nursing or medical related academic programmes taught in English
- Fluency in formal written and spoken English, additional Western European language is a plus
- Organisational skills, multi tasking expertise, interpersonal skills, communication skills, self motivation, persistency and performance under pressure
- Flexibility in working hours and days including weekends when required

WHAT WE OFFER

- Competitive salary and performance linked quarterly bonus
- Private health insurance
- Apple iPhone, laptop computer, meal card
- Company sponsored holiday to exotic destinations upon meeting targets

Candidates will do three 6-9 month job rotations in the following departments:

1. Digital Marketing
2. Online Sales
3. Travel Bookings
4. Customer Services

Each class member will have a dedicated training coach during the probation period.

Successful team members completing the Rotational Program will be placed permanently in one of the departments according to their interest and business need.

To apply please send your CV to talent@longevita.co.uk

Didem Akoğlu / 0549 364 25 19